

LEARN ANY TIME ANY PLACE SYSTEM

ABSTRACT

The project "Learn Anytime Any Place" system is an intranet application being developed for our college. The users who will be interacting with the system are students, faculty, training and placement office cell, office staff and administrator of learn anytime anyplace system.

It is being developed to increase the efficiency of Knowledge sharing among the faculty and students. The application aim is overcoming all drawbacks of the current system in the college.